WHY CHOOSE REDLINE EMISSIONS PRODUCTS?

Your diesel parts customers are losing money every time a truck breaks down. There's the cost of the repairs plus the hidden costs like towing, downtime, missed deliveries and accommodations that can really drain their pockets. Many of these costs can be averted or minimized through regular scheduled maintenance. Particularly by being on top of your fleets' emissions equipment.

PRODUCT QUALITY

REP manufactures most of its product line in-house, built with rigid quality control measures that meet or exceed OE standards. All supplied products go through a rigid QC process, hand inspected by experienced technicians for defects, broken parts, inconsistencies. All medium and heavy duty DPF boxes go through a multi-step hand inspection process using proprietary methods, including weighing and flow testing each unit. Each DPF "Born on Weight" is stamped on the ID tag and is compatible with FSX equipment readings and includes OEM cross information.

REDLINE OFFERS A HUGE SELECTION OF INVENTORY

REP has one of the largest inventories in North America, with product depth and focus strictly on emissions products. IPD Xtra expanded range of Redline Emissions Products now includes:

- Light, medium and heavy duty DPFs and DOCs
- V-clamps
- Gaskets
- Sensors
- Weld bungs

TOP-NOTCH PACKAGING ENSURES YOUR PARTS ARRIVE UNDAMAGED

All Redline Emissions Products are sold individually in premium packaging that protects against damage, reduces waste, and cuts down on lost inventory and missing part components. All packages are labeled with OEM manufacturer name and related cross reference numbers for easy identification. You know you are getting the right match with the right fit!
